“ My family moved into Jimmy’s neighborhood when I was in the third grade. As time passed and I got older Jimmy became a great friend to me. We went on many golf outings together over the years. We had some great times together golfing, aggravating each other on and off the course and simply talking about life.

Jimmy was always smiling, loved his family and most of all was a great Christian man. Everyone who had the honor to have Jimmy as a part of their life, no matter how great or small, is truly blessed and lucky.

We will all miss Jimmy,

“ Most everyone knew that Jimmy was like a brother to me, Lawrence and Richard.

We all grew up and went our separate ways but the love was always there.

All our prayers are with Annette and the boys. Heaven is a better place with Jimmy.
