“ Dear Family,
Words seem inadequate to express the sadness we feel about Uncle Buddy's death. It helps our sadness to think of the special memories we had with him, that will live in our hearts forever, being filled with so much joy and happiest. Those happy times, we could never forget when he was always joking, laughing and giving big hugs. He is someone so special that he will not be forgotten. Uncle Buddy's in heaven now with mom and all the other family members that went before him. I can imagine all of them praising GOD as they play and sing those beautiful gospel hymns. We will miss him greatly and will always love him. May GOD give you all strength and comfort in this time of grief. Please know that y'all are in our thoughts and prayers with Love.
