“ my prayers from me to Clints family.....I'm so very sorry for your loss....I played ball with Clint and worked with him.....A very good man.....God speed

“ It seems so futile to try to use words to express what the loss of Clint means to the world, the sun is just a little dimmer now, the nights a little darker. He was the kind of person that, no matter how long it had been since you seen or talked with him, it always seemed like it was just yesterday. Yes, he was known as a great drummer, a happy person that always had a smile on his face, a good golfer, just a really fun guy to be around. But Clint was also a giver, his family, through the work of his dad Jimi, and the Cornfield Angels, brought so much joy into the lives of so many people here in our little corner of the Upcountry and when he spoke of it, it was never "I" it was always "we". This is the legacy that will stand, this is the love that the man showed the world though his deeds, not his words, this was the essence of Clint. I will miss you greatly my friend, our times on stage, on the golf course, or just leaned against the truck talking in a parking lot, but more importantly, the world will miss you, and will be just a little less brighter without you in it. May God bless the Turner family and Amy.

“ To Clint's family it was such a shock and a heartbreaking to hear the loss of Clint. I would like to start out by saying my deepest heartfelt prayers and thought are with y'all as y'all's journey has I'm sure has just began. I worked with Clint many years at the manor and sugardoos and I guess one thing that stands out to me. Even more if you could image than his awesome talanet. Is knowing him on the personal level Clint always came into the bar with this smile or this certain kind of grin. And always like he never had a bad day or a problem in the world. And I'm sure he did but he never showed it. And was the same playing and on break. And to his mom you really have something to be proud of you raised a respectful, kind gentleman that's for sure. And back then to his son Dillion your talked about you all the time the sun rose and set in you I want you to know through all these hard times how much you was his world. And to all the family Clint was and is someone to be loud of and when you think of him or someone speaks his name. Do what I know y'all know Clint would do and that's smile with that shit eating grin he always had. And like I posted on my fb page the song he is Sprit in the sky. And thank you for reading this.

“ I knew Clint for nearly 30 years. I worked with Clint for over 3 years at Dealers Supply. I have lost a great friend in Clint Turner and I am deeply saddened over his passing. Not only was Clint a fantastic drummer, he was an awesome person and true friend, who was like a brother to me. Although we only saw each other off and on in our busy lives over the last 20 years or so we had some great times together during the earlier years of our friendship. At one time we were even roommates for a while. "I will miss you buddy"

He will be missed, and to his son -- your father will always be remembered for being such a wonderful person. God Bless you all. I am sure Clint is in the band in heaven.

“ It is still hard to comprehend how such a nice and caring person can be taken away so young. I can still hear Clint in the back ground yelling x's and o's when I am on the phone with Roger. I enjoyed getting to know Clint, my heartfelt condolences to Amy, Dillon and the rest of his family. You are going to be missed greatly by all.

“ I have known Clint for 28 years thanks to my sister being friends with his sisters. In 28 years I've never seen him without a smile. I could call him up with a problem anytime and he was always willing to help. If we went years without talking due to life moving so fast we always seemed to pick up right where we left off. He was a true friend that always truly cared about others. I will miss you my sweet friend but I will see you again. May God bless you all Turner Family and give you strength during this difficult time.
