“ I remember her when I was young. She was sweet. Then, I saw her at Friendship Church where I go with my sister Evelyn and we became reunited when I told her who I was. I think a lot of her - she had the prettiest soft eyes. She was a perfect model mother who will forever be remembered and missed. Heaven is happy with her arrival!

“ Jo always had a smile on her face. She was a beautiful lady. I have MANY fond memories from my childhood spent with her. She gave me my first two pets, "Zero" and "Mitzi", two of the many peek a poos she raised. She always welcomed us to her home. She loved her family very much. She will be missed by all who knew her. So hard to believe she is gone.
