“ From Fay Guy Hedgepath

Dear, sweet Joy

You are in Heaven now, but you left me with so many happy memories.

We had such a happy childhood -

Exploring the woods – gathering moss and pretty rocks;

Sliding on a red-dirt bank – just one day – Mama said that was one too many;

Making a playhouse on the ground – lined with rocks, with a pretend cook-stove;

Catching lightning bugs, playing chase and hide-and-so-peek.

Then, we grew up and had our precious children.

I was so blessed that you babysat sweet Susie while I worked for a year.

You were her second mama.

Now, everywhere I look I see all the beautiful treasures you made me -

Beautiful baskets, cross-stitch, potholders, and other keepsakes.

Most of all, I remember your sweet spirit and kind heart.

You suffered so much, but never complained. You are an inspiration to me and so many others.

I wish I could express just how dear you are to me – no one ever had a more wonderful sister or friend.

I love you, sweet sister.
