“ Jackie, Jim, and Jeff and families,
I'm sorry for your broken and sorrowful hearts but I'm rejoicing your mom is in heaven with your dad and they are whole again and praising God. They have no more suffering or tears. We can rejoice in knowing that we will see them again one day when God calls us home to be with Him and them. I have so many fond memories of coming to your house and your mom cooking for us. She let us girls have fun at sleepovers.
I remember her quilting loom hanging up and she would be working on a quilt and have Jackie helping her. What a great talent to hand down to the next generation. She and your dad were truly children of God who raised their children in the admiration of The Lord. What better legacy could one have? I will miss them as I'm sure you all will. Hold on to your memories. I love you guys.

“ *Jim and family,
So sorry for your loss, mothers like yours are the most special gift that we will ever receive, although we will miss them always, we know that we will be with them again one day if we are believers.
Our prayers are with you and your whole family.*

*Jackie, David, Jim, Gail, Jeff and Elaine, I'm so sorry about the loss of your mother and know she is in heaven now in peace and can no longer suffer in any way. She was always such a blessing to me growing up and I will always have a special place in my heart for her and your home where you all welcomed me!
We are praying for you all.*
