“ Was so sorry to hear the news about Mr. Meng. I have so enjoyed my association with him here at Richard Campbell and with you, June and your sweet family. I will definitely miss seeing all of you. I am grateful to God who gives us these opportunities to cross paths with wonderful people whom we feel connected to. May He bless you all with peace and happiness and heal the void of your sweet husband & father until you meet again. I want to come to the visitation/funeral but I'll have to see how Ray is doing today. My love to all. Janie Axelson & Ray Garren

“ Dear June, Donna, Kathy and Jan, We are sorry that we won't get to be there to honor your precious husband and father. Our memories of that big smile and quiet manner will always remain. We loved Cootie, too. Growing up, we loved spending the night with you. You were our idols of a wonderful family. We send our love, hugs and prayers and hope to see you soon. Harry and Judy Stancil

“ Thoughts and Prayers to June and the girls. It was an honor to have known Mr Meng. Much respect to a Brother Veteran. It was a privilege and blessing to have shared a day on Lake Hartwell with Kaliure this past Summer. Mr Meng was a good man, he'll be greatly missed (until our paths cross again).
