“ How do I say goodbye to my best friend, not sure I can find the words. What I wouldn't give to have one more day to spend with you. We made so many memories together, the 2 of us was the real Thelma and Louise! We shared fun times and hard times together. Miss those days on Edwards rd, the cook outs, the late nights of just hanging out being silly and the laughter, lord did we have some good times. I miss you so much already. Fly high my sweet friend, I love you always

“ Ann, I am so happy to know that you are no longer a prisoner of your health. You closed your eyes to this world and the pain it held for you and opened your eyes to the absolute glory only found in the presence of the Lord. Your eternity with Jesus will be filled with praise and worship, and you'll never need to feel pain or sadness again. I love you so much, my children love you, and Brad is so heartbroken for your loss. Until we meet again, we will remember you fondly and cherish the memories we made with you. Love you always!

“ Ann, I am going to miss you so much. I will miss talking with you every morning on the phone and all the places that you, Emily, and I used to go to. I'll miss shopping for hours and then going to lunch. I know that you are already telling jokes with Butch. I love you and I will see you again in Heaven.

Your sister, Janice

“ Kandi, you are a special woman, and I am so proud and happy that we are Sweethearts. My sadness of our present separation is only surpassed by my joy and loving memories of our togetherness. I miss you, but what a comfort to know that you are with your Heavenly Father.
