“ Dear Karen and Janet,

When I learned of Katherine's passing I was heartbroken. We shared many wonderful times together, especially with our other "sisters" from TRHS, Betty Talley and Patsy Bishop. I also have wonderful memories of the bus tours we enjoyed. Some of these included Clara Ford and Bobbie Ayers. We all had great fun traveling together and I will look back at the pictures and remember those happy times.

She was a wonderful lady and dear friend.

You have my love and deepest sympathy.

“ I was privileged to meet Katharine through her daughter Karen who said “ you and mom are so much alike”. And yes we were as if haven been cut from the same cloth. Our friendship was a true treasure & gift from God. I will always be thankful for our weekly lunches & many check in phone calls. And I will miss the wisdom she shared with me. An extraordinary soul that is now rejoicing in Heaven & has seen the face of Jesus. Praise his holy name.
