“ Something random made me think of you guys today, Bobbie. I'm sorry to see this. I remember as a 1st grader (circa 1979) when you guys lived up on the hill with a man named Jerry and had about a dozen dogs (Bimbo was the St Bernard I think, and there was a Pekingese in there as well that could climb the chain link fence), then when you guys build your house and lived in the camper you put together a haunted house in the basement one year. One Christmas you made my brother and me stockings with little gifts in them. I have thought of you guys with fondness many many times since then.

I am so sorry to learn of Hobie passing away. As the family mourns he is having a wonderful homecoming in heaven with God, He will be missed but God gives you grace to face each day as you adjust to life without him.

“ Sorry to hear that he has passed. I remember him as a very devoted husband and father. Back in the day when the two of you built your house. Lived in a tiny camper on the creek till you got the basement in the dry. You guys finished the house and always seemed so very happy. He was always close in my heart even tho the last years I had little contact with him. Love you Guys.

“ Best brother growing up. We did lots of crazy things together. In his grown up years he was a great husband and father. He was very blessed to have a wife who stood by him through thick and thin and a beautiful daughter and grandchildren who he loved with all his heart. Thank each if you for being so good toy brother. Love you Bonnie
