“ Kevin was one of the hardest working men I've ever met. He always had a demanding presence but you could see him literally melt whenever he was around those grandbabies. He tolerated me and Isabella at his house with Renee, Catherine and the horses almost every other weekend for years and would holler at us like we were his own. He will be greatly missed!

“ Kevin was perhaps the hardest working guy I've ever met. He remodeled my kitchen, built a spec house from the ground up in our neighborhood and was getting ready to help my husband on rebuilding our deck. We shared a lot of laughs and good times. He will never be forgotten.
My love and prayers to Renee, Leah and Sherry and all of Kevin's family. May his soul rest in peace. I see him in heaven already remodeling the gates. ❤️🙏❤️
