“ I met Kim at Winthrop College (now a University) back in the 80s. She was my next door neighbor at the Lodge. We had a small group of friends who hung out together those four years. Kim was always so sweet, happy and very friendly. After college, we lost touch but connected again in the past few years through Facebook. I loved her strong faith, her love for her husband, daughter and grandsons, and her stories of RVing. She also shared many fun baby stories and fun times in her life. Prayers for peace and comfort for her family and friends. The world has lost a beautiful soul but we will all see Kim again in Heaven. 🙏🙏🙏

“ Kim was a special person to me. She loved me and helped me in so many ways as she did for her own mother. I loved her and she has left a vacancy in my heart that no one else can fill and I will miss her greatly. I'm glad she is with Jesus and is not in pain now and I will see her again. To Doug and family, I along with all your church family love you and are here to pray with you and help you in ways we can.

“ Kim and Doug took my family in and adopted us in 2013. She was the best mother when and my kids all call her and Doug their bonus grandparents. Her tooth fairy was better than ours and the kids always knew if mom wouldn't get it for us, Ms. Kim would. She had the best laugh and I can still hear her calling her little dog Woody. She displayed godliness in a way that made you want to love Christ more and made His love tangible. She loved Slater, she loved her church, she loved Doug fiercely, her grandbabies were her joy, and she loved me. No matter what was going on in my life, she always found ways to love. I am going to miss her, a pillar of faith, a rock, and my friend. I love you, Doug. Kim made life beautiful.

“ Kim was a amazing neighbor and a pillar in our community. She would go out of her way for anyone and was always so friendly and kind. I will miss chatting with her from our yards and her greetings as we passed each other driving into our neighbor hood with that sweet grin and friendly wave. Sending many prayers and healing blessing to Doug and family. I know she is shining her love down from the heavens and pray her loved ones can find comfort knowing she's in the presence of god.

“ Kim worked with Dan and me at Marietta Baptist Camp for about three years, she babysit our children and was such a good person and friend. We were thrilled when she told us she was marrying Doug. The two of them kept our three children for us to have a get away weekend to Gatlinburg and it snowed while we were gone. They both were wonderful together and I know Doug is going to feel like a big part of him is missing. Kim was always thinking of others, had a big heart, always caring about others around her and was one of the best little girl's counselors we ever had. She loved her campers like she was their mother. Kim loved our Lord and Savior and I can find peace in knowing she is with Jesus. Doug, Amanda, Kay, Carolyn and the rest of the family know that we are praying for you during this difficult time. We are still in shock ourselves to have received your news from another former camper and later a staffer who worked with Kim. I am trying to find a number for one of you in hopes of talking with you. Know that you are loved and Kim will always hold a special place in our hearts.

“ Kim was my littles' "RaRa" and was always there to listen, offer comfort, or cook you a meal. She loved us and spoiled us, and we are so grateful. She was such a giving person, and she will leave a big hole in all of our hearts. Thankful she is with her Saviour, but sad that she can't be with us. We love you so, Kim.
