“ Carol, We wish to extend our condolences in the passing of Larry. Unfortunately, we didn't know him very well but we did deliver DVD's to him on several occasions. He always had a smile on his face and was eager to watch the DVD's.

We want to extend our love to you, our sister in Christ, and your family.

“ Carol and family,

I feel much sadness on your loss. You and Larry contributed much to the North Greenville Food Crisis Ministry, as board members and volunteers. Under your services, many plans were made to fill the needs of our community.

My prayers and thought will be with you during this grieving process. God will wrap his loving arms around you and will meet your daily needs.

If I can help in any way, please call me. God bless you and your family.

*Your Sister in Christ,
Karen E. Robertson*

“ Mrs. Seigler, Mrs. Singleton, and Lindsay - You all are in my thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time. I never got the privilege of meeting Mr. Seigler but to hear Lindsay speak he was one of a kind. Please find peace in knowing that Mr. Seigler is no longer suffering and although he is no longer physically with you - he is with you in spirit. With much love and sympathy, Erin Wilkerson

“ Dear Carol and family, I didn't know Larry really well, but the times I was around Larry were always enjoyable. He was so interesting and fun to talk to. I appreciate all that he did for our wonderful library at Clearview Baptist. It is just so beautiful and well done and a great asset to us. Bless you and your family as you go through this time of sorrow. I am praying for you all. Larry and Sandra McLendon
