“ Larry was my friend and I cherished our friendship, I am going to miss you my friend, I'm going to miss you playing and singing, thank you for helping me out on Sundays when I would pull a song out that you had never heard. You did wonderful, I have known you a long time and our friendship was special.. Our loss is Heavens gain. I know Heaven is a sweeter place today because you are there. Tell Brenda I love her and I love you too....

“ Uncle Larry was always so fun to be around. One of my favorite memories even though it was a sad time was when we were in the hospital waiting room when my grandfather Leroy was losing his battle with cancer. Uncle Larry told some of the funniest stories about when they were growing up. He found light in the darkest of times. I've always thought of him as a grandfather since Leroy passed away. He will be missed. -Katelyn
