“ Larry was a big gentle man, and again I say gentle, Nothing pleased him more than to sit in his gazebo and watch hummingbirds flitter from feeder to feeder of which there were not a few. I remember enjoying this pass time with often and then our conversation would turn most times to my great grandchild Natalie who he loved greatly. Natalie calls him (uncle worry) and I don't know how we'll explain to her why (uncle worry) is not around. I guess we'll say that Jesus wanted him to come be with him and that we'll see him again someday.

I praise God that He made a way so that we mortals could come to Him and on Aug 15th Larry accepted that invitation and made that trip that he had prepared for long ago.

*Good-by old friend,
Jerry*
