“ *Brenda and Butch,
So sorry to hear about Mrs. Irene. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, Love leaves a memory no one can steal. Cherish her precious memories. She was a sweet lady. I remember she made a beautiful basinet cover when my son was born. She and Mr. Bill were great neighbors!*

“ Butch and Brenda,

We are very sorry to hear about the loss of Irene. She was always fun to be around at the family reunions, always cutting up. Also, we will never forget our visit to her home when your dad was alive and we talked about your dad's coon dogs, and Irene told us stories of when she and Bill were first married. Our prayers are with you and your family.
