“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Chris. She was a very special lady, and I was proud to be one of her friends. We worked together many years ago. We also have a family connection. I loved her and will miss her very much. I lost contact with her a few years back when I moved out of state. Condolences to the family.

“ Chris will truly be missed by our family. She was very special to us. Over the years she has helped us through many tragedies by helping with family, cooking and cleaning. She was a very giving person. I loved her very much as did my parents Ray and Callie Black. Louise Freeman
