“ Lila Ashe, what a woman. Proverbs 31 fits hers so well. A great person, a great mother, wife, friend, teacher, leader, tree climber, roofer, mechanic, you name it, Ms Lila was it. If one was in a fox hole, and you could have two people with you, she would be in the top of the list. She was a woman who loved. She love people. She loved God, His Word, His truth, she loved to teach The Word and she could, because she lived it. I have known her and her sisters since the 80's and they are all blessed to have each other. It was time for Lila to take her wings and one day at the Judgment Seat of Christ she will received her rewards. Of all the people there, who will tell her the words of that song by Ray Boltz, Thank you for giving to the Lord. I could not say it any better than the words of that song. To the family, I am sorry Helen and I could not be there, but be assured you are in our prayers and stored in our memories. We love you,
