“ Linda was such a sweet loving understanding pleasant woman. I really can't say enough good things about her, she was such a wonderful person. I remember going to church with her Alyson and Melissa and shopping and just hanging out and talking. I still have doilys and scarves she made for me and my children. Such wonderful memories. My prayers for all grieving, especially those closest to her, are to have a palpable Holy Spirit presence around them, to comfort and bring them closer and guide them through this difficult time. She fought to live and spend as much time with her family and friends as she could, despite health challenges. She is now free of all this world's trouble and in the arms of Jesus. It's hard for us here, who are going to miss her, but she's happy and surrounded in our Heavenly Father's love. I know she will be watching over each one of those she loved cared about and cheering them on through the rest of their life's journey until they're reunited again. My deepest sympathy to all the family. Know you are being lifted up in prayer.
