“ So sorry I am now sending my condolences, but I just found out that Linda passed away last year. She was such a sweet person and it has been many years since I had seen her. My family attended the church where she grew up in and she has been in my home many times during that era. When we moved I lost touch with many wonderful christian people and Linda was one of them. I know she is with our Father in Heaven and Linda one day I and my family will be with you there also.
Blessings to your Mom and siblings.
Your friend in Christ.
