“ Chris and boys, I am so sorry to hear about Lissa. I just found out on Monday that she had been sick and lost her battle with cancer. What a beautiful woman she was and I don't have any memories of her that she didn't have a smile on her face. You will be in my thoughts and prayers.

Please let me introduce myself. My name is Mary McWhorter. My husband, Randy and I now live in Mt Pleasant but formerly I lived/grew up in Greenville where I had the pleasure of teaching at League Middle School with Lissa. What fond memories I have of Lissa's precious smile, wonderful laugh and endearing compassion for her students. She was a great teacher whose passion for helping young people radiated daily.
Chris, I'm sure we met at some of the League functions. Lissa always enjoyed a great social event with the faculty and loved any opportunity to showcase you and her precious children. She was such a fun person, a joy to be around. Our hearts go out to you as you attempt to deal with the huge void left by Lissa's passing.
Randy and I will keep you in our thoughts and prayers in the difficult days ahead.

With heartfelt sympathy,

“ Gary Sanders (TRHS Class of '77) First I would like to offer my deepest sympathy to Chris, the children and to entire Garrett family. During the time Lissa and I were in high school together, she, Bobby and the entire Garrett family, were the kindest and most pleasant people to be around.

There were many Saturdays and Sunday afternoons that a group of us from school, Chris too, would gather at the Garrett's home for a classic game of backyard football. Lissa loved to be our host and sometimes even our source of entertainment. There would be so many cars there, that both side of the street would be lined bumper-to-bumper from the highway to the hill. It was an early testament to her warm personality and to her character. Even though I had only seen Lissa a few times since graduation, she will always be a friend of mine.

“ Chris, Patrick, Garrett and Ashton. We are so sad for your loss. I know how much Lissa loved each of you. She was such an inspiration to me as I am battling cancer. She fought so long and so hard and I know she was tired. It is difficult to understand why these things happen but I know that God loved Lissa and his plan is perfect. My prayer for each of you is that you can hang on until you see all the blessings that will come from Lissa's life. I will continue to pray for each of you every day. We love you all!

I am so blessed to have known such an incredible woman, and I am so thankful for the gift of her smile, her laughter, her advice, and her friendship. I also thank her for the blessing of her youngest son, Patrick. He has been a bright spot in my life since I taught him two years ago. I will keep my promise to you, Lissa, and I will always be there for Patrick as his "adopted mom." I miss you, and I love you, Lissa.
