“ We first met Lloyd when he was 86. He was one of the first to welcome us to the neighborhood when we bought our house in 2009. Lloyd was even so kind as to give us some ears of corn fresh from his garden. We considered him an amazing man - so vibrant and full of life. When he drove past the house he always had a wave and a smile. The world is a better place because of him.

“ Lloyd Cato wrote his own obituary daily until he passed. He was a true servant of our Lord, as he helped so many during his lifetime. He helped so much with the transformation of the North Greenville Food Crisis Center, from a basic closet to the filling station the Methodist Church owned. He was put here to help so many people & organization, & he did just that. He was one of the greatest men I have ever known. I thank God for his friendship & help making the old oily filling station into a place we could help those less fortunate. We always said we were giving a hand up instead of a handout. Christine & Lloyd are now spending eternity with our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

“ I met Mr. Cato a few years ago when my grandmother was in the same nursing home as his wife. He was there eating his meals with his beautiful bride and they would always chat with us of how our day was going. I had never seen such devotion as I had of him with his wife. Now he is with her by her side hand in hand. You are going to be missed by so many people that love you. Have a wonderful journey to heaven and we will see you again soon.

“ Lloyd Cato stood head and shoulders above so many others. He was loyal to family and church. I'm so glad our paths crossed and hearts touched. I'm a better person because of Lloyd.
