“ Tina, Kim and Tammy,
We've know you and your dad for a great number of years. In fact, when your dad and my mom were growing us, Mother use to fight your dad on a regular basis! lol Just kids being kids. Mother and I are so thankful for the help and love your dad gave the young boys at Clearview by opening the gym so often which kept the boys out of trouble because they had a great place to go and someone who truly cared for them. I could go on an on. Your dad leaves a great legacy which each of you should find comfort and joy. He was a very good man! Mother and I pray that God give you comfort now and in the coming months. We love you and hope that even in the wake of your loss, you will find solace in celebrating the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. He is with you and the Holy Spirit will give you peace. Through the love of our Father, we also love you.

“ I've known Llyod since I was about 15 years old when Josh and I met in high school. I loved Llyod's strong hugs, his jokes, especially about how handsome he is, and I will never forget him calling me 'Jesrie.' So thankful for the impact he had on my sweet husband, Josh, and his being like a father to him. I love you Papa Llyod and miss you already! See you again and I'm rejoicing in the fact that you will suffer no more.
