“ To all the Edwards I offer my heart felt condolences of love for Ms. Louise and to share what happened to me the first week I met her as well. I had driven her in my senior action van to the Slater dining site that just happened to be on a Friday? Little did I know that this was the day for dirty bingo meaning that everyone has to bring a small gift to be able to win one from someone else? Because I did not know this and had no gift, this is what Ms. Louise did for me. Realizing my problem, she first touched my arm, opened her purse, pulled out a small keychain, then handed it to me. She then said she always kept something like this in her purse bc it had happened before that only reflects her love, devotion, kindness for me that I will always treasure and never forget as well! I have many other memories that I look forward to remembering with her when we all get to heaven as well! Love, from the bottom of my heart!
