“ To Ms. Sarah, Calvin and the family:

Today, you are in a position that we all know, one day we will find ourselves; saying goodbye to a loved one who once ate, drank, sang, cried, travelled and mingled with us; but, has been called home to glory. That position is bitter-sweet. The emotions you are feeling right now compare to no other, but is uniquely personal.

Please know that, my family and I share in your human loss and also, we rejoice with you, knowing that the Almighty God has seen it fit, to reward Mr. Sullivan with a special place in HIS Kingdom as HE has promised.

Mr. Sullivan has run his race diligently and finished his course with the humility of a true soldier of Christ. I pray that each one of us will appreciate and cherish the special memory God has allowed Mr. Sullivan to leave with us.

I know it was the grace of God that brought him to us, and it was the grace of God that took him home.

I pray the Almighty Father continue to place HIS hand of grace, mercy and providence upon each one of us from this day forward. AMEN##imported-begin##O.A. Awolola##imported-end##
