Tribute Wall

“ Grandma lived a long life and will be missed, but without a doubt she is in heaven now, doing exactly what she loved doing the most--serving God. If anyone doubts this, they didn't know our Grandma, that's for sure. Her life's goal was to serve the Lord and now her death must be seen as the celebration for which it truly is.

Like so many grandchildren, my brothers and sister grew up far away from Grandma Davis. But that didn't matter, she still managed to share her love for Jesus with us, reminding us of the love and sacrifice he made. Even with the many short long distance phone calls, Grandma would always insert a quick "remember Jesus loves you" or "read your bible" or "say your prayers" or a just "be thankful to the Lord".

These are the memories I will cherish for the rest of my life and hope I too can be a tool our Lord will use to impact the lives of others as he did with Grandma.##imported-begin##JoAnn M. Davis##imported-end##

“ Lura Davis is my grandmother. I Love her with all of my heart, and I will miss the phone calls every week. Most of the time she was just calling to check and see where my mother Nancy was but she always took time to talk to me. I could call her if I needed to know how to cook something or sew something. I Love her and will miss her so much.

I know she's with Papa now as well as with my Timmy & Brandi, and I can't even imagine what a Wonderful Christmas they will have this year with Jesus!

*I will always remember and Love you Grannie Davis! Love, Donna
