“ Dear Family,
I have been so blessed to know Lynn Fleming as my aunt, second mom, big sister and always a precious friend. I miss her so much but to have watched how she suffered with the cancer and to think of her in Heaven with her mom , Evelyn, Jean, Jack and so many other loved ones she has lost in her life I would not bring her back if I could. She is no longer in pain and she can breathe without the oxygen tanks. She is at peace now and someday when it's my time to go I will See my sweet Aunt Lynn again. My heart hurts but a time will come when our pain will be no more just like her. God Bless and Please meet each need of my family.##imported-begin##Judy Childs##imported-end##

“ Dear Fleming family,
I am deeply sorry to hear of the passing of Lynn. I send my deepest sympathy to the family, and you are certainly in my thoughts at this difficult time. I can only imagine the pain you must be feeling right now over the loss of Lynn. This may seem as it is more than you can bear right now. When the enemy death strikes, there are no words to describe the way we feel. We may even feel as King David did when his son Absalom died.(1 Corinthians 15:26)(2 Samuel 18:33) You may be wondering where you can receive comfort during this trying time. Without question the best encouragement can be given from God's word the Bible. Reading and meditating on the wonderful promises in the Bible can help lessen the sorrow and grief that you are feeling at this time. Our loving Heavenly Father has promised us that he will reunite families together again by means of a resurrection.(John 5:28,29)(Acts 24:15). Just think how happy you will be to welcome your dear Lynn back from the dead. You will be able to hold her, kiss her, and tell her how much you love her. Isn't this going to be a wonderful time to look forward to? We can put our full trust in these promises coming true because at Titus 1:2 it tells us that God CANNOT LIE. I hope that these few words will provide you with some comfort and encouragement at this difficult time. Here are some additional scriptures that I am sure you will find comforting: Revelation 21:3,4, Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 33:24, Isaiah 26:19

With all my sympathy, Sandra##imported-begin##Sandra##imported-end##
