“ Dear McCall family,

I am so sorry to hear about the recent death of Mamie. When we lose a loved one, all we have left is our fond memories of them. So please cherish those memories of your dear loved one. When we experience losing a loved one in death, we may wonder such questions as: Why do we die? How can we be sure we will see them again?

The Bible makes it clear that God did not originally intend for humans to die. God told our first parents Adam and Eve they would die only if they disobeyed him.

After sin and death entered the world, God's purpose for mankind did not change. It is still his purpose for humans to take care of the earth, free from sickness and death.

The scriptures also show that at John 5:28-29, that those in God's memory will be resurrected. Just think of what that means: One day soon we will have the prospect of being reunited with our dead loved ones again. Isn't that a comforting thought to know?

While Jesus was here on the earth, he showed he has the power to raise the dead back to life. On one occasion, he resurrected his good friend Lazarus (John 11:30-44). On another occasion he resurrected a 12 year old girl (Mark 5:35-42).

Even though these resurrections took place some 1,900 years ago, Jesus was showing on a small scale what will take place in the very near future under the Kingdom of God (Matthew 6:9).

I hope that these scriptures bring you and your family comfort and hope.

I want to express my deepest sympathy to the family and friends.##imported-begin##Sandra##imported-end##

“ Mamie,

There is way too much to write here, which is largely why I've had some conversations with you lately on my runs to tell you how thankful I am for you being "you" and for all you did in my life. You are an incredible person, and you made a lasting impact on who I am. You and Papa taught me to work hard, to treat people fairly, to never take myself too seriously, and to never forget who I am. You also taught me to look after people who can't look after themselves. That's a great value that you've passed on, and I love you for it. You're a great person and Conny and I will miss you. Tell Papa hello, and let him know about the little-Leon on the way.

Love, Conny & Justin##imported-begin##Conny & Justin##imported-end##

I will always remember the good times we had together, you were always there for me and I tried to always be there for you. I don't know if they have beaches in heaven but if they do you are walking on them now. When I get to heaven I will know you because you will be the LITTLE ANGEL! that will make sure my wings are straight and I'M standing up straight. “ Mamie I don't know where to start..Well I remember the time when Ronnie and I were married and you were so helpful to us. Also the time when Tina was borned and we stayed with you for a few days till I got stronger--oh you loved her so much, you couldn't do enough for us..(Thank you)Oh yes , you made the best potato salad,I always ask you to fix that for family gatherings. The times we went on picnics,to the mountains, also looking at graves, or visiting relatives, I learned a lot from you.

You had so much wit about things, one day I came by and a friend was there talking and suddenly you turned around and got the black toast that was on fire, ...blew the flames out, and said" Come get it boys while its hot" I laughed so hard.. You always love your pretty flowers outside,and you had a nack of making look like a picture, great housewife/housekeeper, and worked so hard of taking care of others. Also the times at the beach(which you loved) laying in the sun. The time we went to Tabs Ice-cream Parlor, you liked the GO Jo Potatoes and Papa liked banana ice-cream, and at Red Lobster You love the shrimp scampie. We had so many good memories..I'll never forget the time you spent with us and everynight you prayer was the 23 Psalm. In your last days here I sang songs to you and it was calming to you,being there when you were having a hard time, holding your hand thru the end, I'll never forget.

I'll miss you greatly but I know your in heaven with all your family and loved ones having a great reunion.

keep them all straight..see ya###imported-begin##Mary McCall###imported-end###
