Margaret was born in Marietta, the youngest in her family, graduated Marietta High School when you only had to complete 11 grades. She retired from Slater Mill where she worked after graduation. She was loved respected by all she came in contact with. A totally honest person with heart of gold, she would always be there for you. She was my favorite Aunt and like a second Mama to us. She bought groceries when we had none, she bought clothes and school supplies for us and was a rock for Mama to turn to. I will miss her crazy laugh, her silly actions and I'll never again hear her call me a Brat. Love you sweet lady.

Shirley I so agree with you. I still don't know how she went thru High School and didn't miss a day. She was our Aunt, a Mama and big sister all rolled into one. Loved going to her house and eating fried potatoes, hers was the best. Margaret (Gagi) I love and miss you. Memories I will cherish forever.
