

Margaret Waldrop

November 6, 1930 - October 9, 2014

Margaret Madeline (Maggie) Nicholson Waldrop, 83, of Taylors, SC died peacefully October 9, 2014 at the McCall Hospice House in Simpsonville, SC. Maggie was born November 6, 1930 in Anderson, SC to the late Grady Bell Nicholson Sr. and Anna Mozelle Whitworth Nicholson. Maggie was married to the late Charles Edward Waldrop on June 25, 1948 and the mother of five children.

She is survived by four children, Dianne Alexander (Terry) of Simpsonville, SC, Ray Waldrop of Easley, SC, Pam Gibbs (Mike) of Tryon, NC and Theresa Bird (Philip) of Taylors, SC. She is also survived by 6 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. Maggie was a beautiful mother with a kind and simple demeanor, a joyous heart and adventurous spirit. She was loved by everyone who met her. She loved to laugh and had a smile for everyone. Her nurturing heart, compassion and forgiveness were an example we could all live by. She will be greatly missed but forever in the hearts of all who knew her.

A graveside service will be held Saturday, October 11, 2014 at 11 a.m. at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Travelers Rest. Service will be led by Pastor Larry Bell of Cedar Lane Baptist Church, where Maggie was a member.

“ Margaret and I became friends thirty years ago when her "baby" Theresa married my "baby", Philip. As we both grew older, she became my dearest friend and I will miss her beautiful smile, her warm personality and her generous spirit deeply. My sincerest sympathy to each member of her family that she loved so dearly.

“ Grandma I love you and you are truly going to be missed by all. I will always remember the good times we had together and how you were always there for me even if it was just to talk. Tell grandpa hello for me and we will see you soon. I love you, Shane
