“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences during this difficult time. Forty-seven years of marriage is a beautiful reflection of your life and love. I always remember you as a person of integrity and strength (and a true soft spot for all things Ann) - traits that no doubt helped guide your family through these recent years. I hope you find comfort in the memories you shared and the strength of the family you built. I’m sending you and your family healing light as you navigate this loss.

“ I didn’t know Marie for a long time but in the short time that I had the pleasure of doing her nails I grew to love her quickly. She always told me multiple times how pretty I was and often told me she loved me before she left the salon. She was the sweetest soul, and I admire the love her and her husband had for each other.

“ Sharing heartfelt condolences on the loss of your soulmate Mr D. While you often portrayed yourself as the “tough Marine”, your eyes softened and a smile snuck across your face whenever you mentioned Ann. May those memories provide you comfort during this transitional time. Prayers lifted and hugs sent.

“ *In Loving Memory of Our Fun Aunt
You brought so much joy to our childhood — with your laughter, your sparkle, and your big heart. We'll never forget the days you let us play dress-up with your old jewelry and wigs, or the way you'd fix our hair like we were royalty. Thank you for the fun, the love, and the memories we'll carry with us always. You'll be deeply missed.

“ Deepest sympathy to the Dorriety family in the passing of Ann. I have known the Dorriety family since they moved to the area in 1992, as I worked many years with Mr. Dorriety. My family is extending our prayers to the Dorriety family during this difficult time.

“ It’s hard to select specific memories of someone who has been a part of our lives since we were children. Ann had a good heart and was the one we turned to in moments of need. She had a can-do attitude and tackled any crisis. She was fearless.

Ann was creative and tackled all projects with a quiet, positive attitude. While visiting, I once watched her build an ottoman to match a favorite chair. She built one from scratch, with no instructions or experience needed. It was sturdy, padded, and even had a hinged lid. I was impressed. It was a perfect match and lasted for years. I’m not sure why I was so surprised, because she also designed and helped build their home.

A city girl, Ann, landscaped their land, driving a tractor. She crafted beautiful silk flower arrangements worthy of competition merit. She made the best Mississippi Mud Pie and homemade ice cream and was rarely seen without her Pomeranian dogs. And I will never, ever hear the Hokey Pokey song without remembering our dancing to it.

My favorite photo is the one below. She loved my brother with all her being. I knew he would always be loved and cherished with her by his side. Ann was a blessing and will always be carried in our hearts.

“ Ann was always the rainbow in the overcast skies of this world. She was that beaming light that soothed our troubles. I am sure she will be waiting for us in the everlasting. Denise and I mourn with the Dorriety family for her loss.
