“ My daughter is always frustrated that her name was said wrong by different people. Dr. Allison also pronounced it wrong when calling out Sunday school awards.... but for once, my daughter had the nerve to tell him (she was probably around 5 or 6). He apologized to the small child so kindly, she loved him forever after that and talked about him all the time at home.

I have only greatest respect. Dr Allison's sermons were always so lovely. Easy to follow and grasp, yet also deep and full of the knowledge and grace of our Lord. It was clear that he not only knew about Christ... but that He knew Christ intimately, that Christ was his first best thought. Love you and your family so much!

I regret that I could not attend Dr. Allison's funeral today in person, however, Beulah and I were very moved as we viewed the service online. I gave my amen to each tribute. He was indeed a gentleman and a gracious servant of Christ. His work and testimony in our denomination will live on. Truly we need more Mark Allisons in the Lord's work. We also remember you, Charlene, as you face each day without him by your side. Thank you for standing along side Mark in so many avenues of ministry to further the gospel. The Lord be with you and Hannah to bless and keep you.

“ i have known Dr Allison since I was a teenager when we traveled to Israel together with a church group. My respect for and friendship with Dr Allison has grown over the decades especially in the years that he served at Faith FPC as one of the "ABC" preaching ministers (Allison, Barrett, Cairns). My wife and I had the distinct honor of being his next door neighbor for the last seven years of his life and as such we have been able to witness first-hand the extraordinarily loving family of which he was a part. There is no doubt that this gentle and kindhearted man will be missed by his family, his friends, and the greater circle of those he influenced around the world. "The memory of the just is blessed." “ *Dear Charlene and Hannah,
Mark was a big part of our lives for many years--as assistant minister at Faith Free PC, Sunday School teacher for our two sons, and of course, a Christian friend and brother. We have many memories of fellowship with him, and we remember his smile, his gentle laugh. consistency, and kindness. He remained faithful to the end, and trusted that his Savior was faithful as well. He touched many lives--only eternity will tell how many! We will miss him, but we rejoice with you that he is in the presence of his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, finally home. Your entire family has been a testimony to all of us, as you, together, cared for Mark in his final days. May the Lord comfort, strengthen, and encourage you by His Spirit. We send our sympathy and love.--Gene and Sara Elliott*

“ *When my son was attending BJU and was without a place to live, Mark invited him to stay in his mobile home as long as he needed it. And when my thesis was being composed Mark allowed my wife to use his computer to do so. He was a Christian gentleman and friend. Our prayers are for his wonderful family. sincerely in Christ,
