“ Mark was the most amazing person to my family and was always there for us when we needed him. He took in my brother and me at a time in our lives when I'm sure we weren't the easiest to deal with. He was always there for us and loved us like we were his own. I will always appreciate how he loved us and supported us through high school, college, marriage and grandchildren. I know he loved my girls more than life itself. I am heartbroken that he will not be around to see all that they accomplish in their lives. I love you Poppy and I will miss you forever. Thank you for everything. I have missed you so much!

“ I have such fond memories of Mark, who was only in the 4th grade when I moved across the street from the Eskews on Paris mountain. Every time it snows, I still think of all the fun we had as kids sliding down hills and into trees! Mark was the quiet, sensible one among us back then! Praying for his family, I know it is very hard to lose a brother, a father and a grandfather. You have my deepest sympathy.
