“ I met Mark in December of 1982, when I started dating his older brother whom I later married and was part of their family for 17 years. I have many memories of Mark but one of my first was when he was learning to drive and wanted me to teach him how to drive my Volkswagon Beetle, which was a stick drive. If you knew where Mark grew up, then you know that there was a wicked hill on the backside of his street. Well, long story short, half way up that hill Mark decided that he didn't want to do this and proceeded to get out of the car until he realized that the car was going back down the hill! Mark was like a little brother to me and I am deeply saddened by his passing but grateful in knowing that he is in a much better place than you and I. Tracy and Family, please know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers and that I love you all dearly. May God keep you all in his arms during your time of grief and healing and know that this is not a "Goodbye" but instead it is "Until we meet again". Mark will be with you all and watching over you.
