“ Linda, Condolences to you and all the family. For several years Mark and I sang tenor together and sat side by side during rehearsals and concerts with Gap Creek Singers. I know how much he did love and enjoy his music. I am also very aware of the loving support that you provided Mark getting him to rehearsals and concerts. May God bless you and provide comfort to your family during this time of sorrow.

“ Dear Linda and family, I think its totally appropriate that Mark is being laid to rest on the day when one of the teams he covered at the Greer Citizen is playing for the upperstate championship at the Bilo Center. Mark would have been so happy to see Eastside striving for the state title. He made all 5 of the Greer area teams his favorite team. He never missed a big game in any sport. He will be missed. He made many friends over the years at the Ridge! God Bless you all during this time! Just know he will have the best seats in the house Saturday! God Bless, Melinda Fowler

“ Dear Linda and Boys. May God wrap His arms of comfort and peace tightly around you during this time of separation. I remember Mark so well as a faithful choir member and friend. He loved music and most of all loved His Lord.
May God give you His love and peace.
Sincerely,
Martha Ray
