“ To All Of Marshalls Family,

*I had the pleasure of visiting Marshall the last 2 years off & on at Hawthorne and was totally unaware of his passing until this Thursday evening 12-06-07. My Sunday School class at Forestville had adopted Marshall as a shut-in 2 yrs. ago and it will be with remorse that I inform them of his death. I know he is with his wife in heaven now as he talked to me every time I visited about her. He was a humble man of Godly faith and I pray that God gives each of you the strength to endure your loss. I will pray for each of you and I know God will lift you up through this grief. 1st Thessalonians 4,8thru13
We love you all*

“ We would like to express our sorrow of Marshall's death. He was such a good friend to my Mother, "Jean Amick", when she stayed at the Hawthorne Inn. I spoke with Marshall Nov.30th about Mother's declining health.I wished that she could have stayed there with Marshall, and her friends,when she knew who someone was. Now she doesn't know me, but she recognizes my wife.##imported-begin##George & Pamela Amick##imported-end##
