“ I remember as a teenager Louise always sang the song, I know The Lord will make a way for me. My memories of being at Park Place and being around d this precious lady are so sweet. She was always so loving and kind. When I visited her in the hospital she referred to me as Lillie Mae Hammond. She's truly gonna be missed. God bless you Dawn and Lisa and all the rest of your family. My prayes are with you all. I love you so much.

Thank you my sweet Lillie Mae. We love you so much! Mama was singing that song lying in her hospital bed. She knew that while she was laying there that God was making a way for her. 🙌❤️
