

Mary Jacqueline Tippett

September 23, 1928 - October 5, 2015

Mary Jacqueline Tippett, 87, went to be with the Lord on Monday, October 5, 2015, at Hospice of the Upstate after a massive stroke.

Born in Greensboro, NC, she was the oldest of six children of the late Bernes and Mary Lesley Flynt. She moved from Maryland 20 years ago to live with her daughter and ailing mother.

She is survived by her daughter: Mary (Leonard) Murvin, brothers: Robert (Sandy) Flynt, Edward (Mary) Flynt, sister: Pat (Bob) Jones; grandchildren: Malinda Ford, Jackie Murvin, Stephanie Tippett, Clinton, Brad, and Brian Tippett; more than 19 great-grandchildren; 3 great-great-grandchildren; and many loving nieces and nephews.

Along with her parents she was predeceased by her husband: James H. Tippett; son: James H. Tippett, Jr., brother: Jimmy C. Flynt; sister: Sally N. Flynt; grandson: Michael Smith; and great-grandson: D. J. Craun.

Mary loved the Lord and served Him in various ways over the years and always ready to share her faith whenever possible. She was a member of Bible Baptist Church of Travelers Rest.

Graveside services will be held at 1:00 p.m., Saturday October 10, at Fort

Lincoln Cemetery in Brentwood, MD.

“ We wish to celebrate the life of our beautiful Sister Jackie. She lived a long and fruitful life. Even though she is no longer here we feel she is with those who love and cherish her. We will miss her warm and friendly spirit, wonderful sense of humor, and her appreciation of all things beautiful.

Love lives on in our thoughts and memories, Eddie and Mary
