“ Scott was a cherished firefighter and friend of ours. He lovingly called me “Mama Clarence” whenever he saw me. Michael considered him one of his best friends. They loved sharing fishing, gun, and truck stories. Michael still drives a truck owned by Scott. Michael respected Scott’s dedication to the Lord and his ambition to learn and share with others. He will be greatly missed. We send our prayers and love to Michelle and the family.

“ Michelle, I never have and never will forget the time when I got separated from you and the rest of our mission trip while at the Belgium airport. I had mistakenly went through the security doors of “no return”. Scott seeing what happened, also went through the doors so that I would not be alone. My hero on that day. I love you my sweet sister in Christ!
