“ Maudie was well know to me and always found a holy peace and assurance in the Christ who has received her to Himself. She has entered into the fullness of that life so freely given to her. I pray that the family will find hope and comfort in the promise of resurrection to life eternal that is offered to all in Him Who dies and rose for the life of the world.

“ I met Maudie the first Sunday she came to Good Shepherd. She was always there early to spend a few quiet moments of devotion before the service. I enjoyed speaking with her. My sympathy and prayers of comfort are lifted up for her family.
