“Melody was a classmate of mine and a neighbor in Plainfield. She was such a unique and intelligent and fun person. It was so tough being the “new girl” so late in a class that was small and had been together so long. She really rose to the occasion. I totally enjoyed the time I spent with her in HS and at IU. She was such an interesting young woman that I have to assume that she went on to me a really interesting adult. I am sure she will be missed by her family. Seeing her picture and her smile made me feel a pang of loss that stretched across the years. She certainly challenged and enriched my life and made me laugh. I’m so glad you showed up in my life when you did Melody.

“What a sweet love story you had. Together in high school, separated for many years, and reconnecting at a reunion which then gave you 20 wonderful years together. John and I adored hearing and seeing the passion and love Jim had for Mel and the glow she had for him. My heart breaks that they are now separated but they will be reunited again. My love to Jim and their family.

“ Melody was an amazing sister in law - and will be greatly missed 🙏
💕 She and my brother made a beautiful couple and what I loved about them most was the kindness, respect, and deep love that they shared between them.

She was smart as a whip, fun loving, and a great co-conspirator when we surprised Jim last December on his 70th. She made my brother's life so happy - Rest In Peace, dear Mel ❤️ 🙏

“ My deepest sympathies to Mel's family and her husband Jim. I only met her briefly during a wedding in Greenville South Carolina. But during that short visit realized what a wonderful classy and loved woman Mel really was. I wish her peace and know she is in a much better place now. She is looking down realizing the memories and the love she shared with those still waiting to meet with her again. I am happy even though that time was so very short that I was a part of her life for a few minutes. May she rest in peace. God bless.

“ People come and go within everyone's time span. We are blessed when some enter our hearts and stay forever. Mel was that person for us. Jim, too. They lived as somewhat distant neighbors several houses apart from us in Kalamazoo. That is until one summer day; Mel and Jim strolled by our house hand in hand as they often walked together. They stopped and we chatted for a while. We had plans for an outdoor bratwurst cook later that day, so we invited them to join us for dinner. They were gracious enough to accept and not to mention that they were on a low fat diet. An enduring friendship grew from that dinner onward. We enjoyed conviviality and common interests with birthdays, anniversaries, and just simple get-together. Mel took great deserved pride in her cooking and did Jim with his magical garden. Some time later we became separated by distance as we each moved away, but the bond of friendship remained as strong as ever. We are deeply saddened by Mel's passing, but comforted in remembrance of Mel's and Jim's love and dedication to each other, and the generous kindness and sweetness of our friendship. She has passed, but she is still here in our hearts and minds.
