“ My deepest sorrow on Michael's passing to you Neil, your wife and daughter, and to Jim, Paul, Bob, Art, Brent, Jon and Nancy. There was never a dull moment with Mike: always on the go, always people to see, places to go, things to do. Great story teller and diligently kept in touch with the aunts & uncles, and his vast cousins. If you were around Mike, you were going to laugh and share in his joy of life. I have so many warm memories of him, from childhood visits with the clan in Ottawa that included "the Barron boys", to visiting him at his cool apartment in Chicago with the indoor swimming pool, his house with Frank in Hlghland Park, making trips to Ottawa to pick up pork tenderloins for dinner with Bumpa and Babe, getting to visit him in SC... He was always available for a phone call; smart, trustworthy, dependable and loving. I didn't know he was so close to death on Saturday Neil, didn't know I wouldn't have the chance to communicate with him again, didn't know he wouldn't read my last note to him. I'm so deeply saddened by that. But I think he knew how much I loved and cared for him. I'm going to miss my dear cousin very, very much. I'm keeping you in my thoughts and prayers. My love to you all,
Cousin Debbi
