“ PS Michael gave me some of the best advice when I went into the army. "Watch out for the guys that try to hard to be your friend right away. Watch them for couple of weeks. A lot of them will try to take advantage of you. A few will be good buddies. Also never volunteer for ANY thing"

“ Michael was a neighbor high school friend co worker at the hospital in the 80s. Fun guy. When he walked in the room things cheered up. He was well liked. I have not seen him much in the 15 years but when I did he was that good old boy for high school. My deepest sympathy to his family and friends.

Michael has been a true friend for over 40 years. He visited me at Greenville Memorial this time last year when I had my 6th spinal surgery. He dearly loved his family and was proud of his two daughters and he absolutely adored his grandchildren. They were the JOY of his life. He honored and loved his mother. I was fortunate to know him. Proverbs 24:16 for though the righteous fall seven times, they rise again...
His life can be summed up by a book he gave me a few years ago by Philip Yancey : What's So Amazing About Grace? Looking forward to seeing my dear friend in the Rapture.

“ My most fond memories are when I was a kid and I would come with Dad to your place in Marrieta. In Your deep scruffy voice youd say "hey boy, are ya hungry?" I'd shake my head, well sure I guess so, knowing good and well that you and dad had to shoot the breeze for a while.

You would walk over to the cupboard and you would pull out a can of Beenie weenies. You would heat them up just for me. You would look at me as I finished and always ask if I wanted more. You would always make me feel welcome in your home no matter what. Even after so many years you came and shared your love with us after being released and sang gospel tunes in my kitchen as tears rolled down your face. This is how I will remember you always. I love you and I will miss you.
