“ Gerri, Doug and Robin I was shocked to hear that Mike had passed away. For the last year or two Mike has stopped by my house almost every month or so and we would sit here looking across the pond and talk about our days growing up together. I'll miss those visits terribly now. One thing he made sure of every time he was here was to tell me he loved Jesus so I know it won't be long until we meet again. Love you all and I'm praying for God's comfort for all of your family. Mark Watkins

“ Mike worshiped with us quite a bit at Triune Mercy Center. He also did some renovations for us. He was always polite, always gracious, always a gentleman. I am very sorry for your family's loss.
