“ I went to high school with Tweety and church at West Pelzer when we were younger. I always felt Tweety and I were close. Some of the best memories i have of Tweety were at football. Practice at Palmetto. I lost track of tweety throught the years. I w0uld run across him occasionally..It was always nice to see my friend when we did run across each other. SO MANYOF THE WEST PELZER KIDS ARE GONE RIP MY FRIEND

“ The most sincere lover of life and family, this man had no idea of the impact he had on others he touched along the way. I will miss him dearly. Praying for Tami and the family as they navigate life without his presence. Semper Fi! Job well done. Get your rest, Soldier. You definitely had a good run. I love you. 🕊️⭐️❤️🇺🇸
