“ Dear Bishop Family:
We have so many precious memories of Carol . Remember meeting her and Dee the first time they came to stay with us in North Dakota as they were traveling back from Alaska. Reason being, her daughter was to marry our son. It didn't take me very long to realize what a loving, godly, sweet couple this was. I knew our son had picked the right girl! They opened their home to us many times as we traveled to SC to visit Blake, Melodie and Carolina. Carol was a great cook and my oh my those beautiful wedding cakes she made. Carol's present to our daughter on her wedding in ND was one of those beautiful cakes. We shared our beautiful granddaughter, Carolina, and I remember how thrilled she was when she was born and so happy to live just down the hill, so she could see her and care for her almost every day. I admit that I was a bit jealous because I still lived in ND and only got to see Carolina a few times a year. I saw the love she and Dee shared for each other and how Dee so lovingly cared for her when she became so sick. She will be missed, but left beautiful memories.
