“ She was called "Jack", so the first question I asked about my Aunt Mildred was "why." " She was the first born out of 5 and my Daddy wanted a boy, so he called her Jack", my Mom said.
As a child, I ran and played with Steve, Toby and Jimmy in meadows and creeks at their house, and really loved her rice pudding for breakfast.!Then, finally, another girl! Aunt Jack loved to see the 2 girls rehearsing to sing in church. Vickie was the talent on the piano! I just so enjoyed the country life at Aunt Jack's house.
She made my childhood special! Susie Vehorn McAtee
