“ Horace and my late husband, Mike, were very good friends for years. So Nikki became one of my very first American friends other than Mike's wonderful relatives when we moved (back) to the U.S. in 1986.

She was kind, beautiful, smart, gracious, very crafty and a great cook!

She was the ultimate working mom, loving wife and mother in my eyes.

Horace, Sam & Andrew:

Our thoughts and prayers are with you in this difficult time.
