

Nancy Hamby

February 21, 1934 - November 8, 2019

Nancy Elledge Hamby, 85, of Greenville, passed away Friday, November 8, 2019, at her home.

Born in Madison, Wisconsin, she was the only daughter of the late Pleasant Daniel and Ada Luella Lewis Elledge. She was a retired teacher and principal, and was a member of The Church Of Jesus Christ Of Latter-day Saints.

Nancy was loved by many. She was a one-of-a-kind woman with a generous heart, a keen intellect, and a sharp wit. Nancy learned to play piano as a child, and continued studying the instrument well into her seventies. She was the church pianist/organist for decades. Nancy was proud of her academic accomplishments, earning several degrees in education: BS (West Chester State College), MS (Temple University), MA (Furman University), and ES (University of South Carolina). She taught school in Pennsylvania and South Carolina, and retired from her position as a Greenville County elementary school principal in 1999.

She is survived by one son, Michael O'Daly (Susan), and two daughters, Patricia Daley (Carol Jackman), and Barbara Daley.

Nancy is predeceased by her first husband: George M. Daley; her second husband: Ralph L. Hamby, Jr., and her brother, Edman L. Elledge.

Funeral service will be held at noon on Monday, November 11, at The Church Of Jesus Christ Of Latter-day Saints (400 Farris Bridge Road, Greenville, SC 29611). Burial will follow in Mountain View Memorial Park.

The family will receive friends Monday morning from 11:00 a.m. until noon at

The Church Of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.
