“ *Virginia-and family,
So sorry to hear of Mrs. Weathers passing, We were out of town and when we got back found out. She was indeed a very sweet lady and a dear friend of mine. So many memories and good times we had. I know she is in heaven. We will be praying for you and your family. Ronnie and Mary McCall* “ Virginia, I was very sorry to see that your mom had died. She was a lovely lady. I remember her fondly as my favorite Sunday school teacher. She and mother were good friends. I'm praying for you at this sad time. Susan Lang

“ "A dignified, witty Southern Lady" (in the words of others on this site) is a good description of our "Aunt Nancy." The Wallace family has many wonderful memories of Aunt Nancy that we can share for years to come. Daughter Virginia was so good to her; they shared a special bond through books and laughter. Rest in peace, Aunt Nancy; you will be lovingly remembered.
